

PRESERVATION KENTUCKY EXCELLENCE IN PRESERVATION AWARDS 2012-2019

Established in 2012 to honor the exceptional contributions of Kentuckians who have excelled in preserving the Commonwealth's rich heritage, Preservation Kentucky's awards feature projects from rural and urban communities and people who have demonstrated leadership and guidance preserving the built environment, promoting sustainability, and providing educational programs. Their successes are inspirational, encouraging reminders of how historic preservation strengthens communities, fosters economic development, maintains and creates jobs, and contributes to our quality of life. The awards are named after Kentuckians who have a long service of dedicated volunteer and/or professional time devoted to preserving Kentucky's architectural, cultural and prehistoric places, and underscore their economic, aesthetic, cultural and social benefits.

Preservation Kentucky is a membership-based 501(c)(3) public charity nonprofit that educates and advocates for the preservation of historic buildings, structures and sites throughout the Commonwealth. As stewards of historic preservation, we play a vital role in the protection and promotion of our state heritage and vestiges of all Kentuckians' unique and diverse past. Our mission is to preserve our state heritage in our architecture, landscapes and prehistoric places. Our goals are to advocate the economic, aesthetic and cultural benefits of historic preservation for community revitalization, resiliency and revenue, heritage tourism, business growth, jobs and quality of life; to save endangered historic places through community support and public awareness; to provide technical assistance on the methods, materials and treatment of historic properties; to advocate for preservation friendly policy and legislation; and to connect Kentuckians with their heritage by helping them understand and appreciate it. Programs include workshops, webinars, information clearinghouse, referrals, grants, and special events.*
